

Who's Who in the Historic Preservation Office?

The New Jersey Historic Preservation Office (HPO) has installed voice mail to better serve our customers. The telephone system will provide first time callers, unfamiliar with our office, a series of menu options. Our menus are designed to route callers to the appropriate professional staff member. Menus will be activated for all calls made to (609) 292-2023, 292-2028, and 984-0140.
